

VIEWS OF BAUSMAN

Defined and Contrasted With Those of the Orthodox Divines.

THE PROBLEM OF A FUTURE LIFE.

No Agreement Yet by the Presbytery's Examining Committee.

MINOR NEWS FROM THE THREE STATES

(SPECIAL TELEGRAMS TO THE DISPATCH.)

ROCHESTER, Sept. 22.—The committee to investigate the case of Rev. J. H. Bausman appointed by the Allegheny Presbytery has met two or three times, but has not yet agreed upon its final report.

With regard to future punishment he holds the views on preterition maintained by Dr. Campbell, of Sewickley, the Chairman of the Presbytery's committee. This view is to be advocated in the Presbyterian ministers' meeting next Monday by Dr. Kandler, one of the leading divines of this city.

It is to be noted that the case of Bausman who die without making a profession of religion, Mr. Bausman is not always sure where they go. He inclines somewhat to the theory of a second probation. He has not advocated these views in the pulpit or on the platform, and simply holds them as a conviction.

NO TRAIL SEEMS PROBABLE. The report will be made to the next meeting of the Allegheny Presbytery. It does not seem likely there will be a trial for here, as Mr. Bausman's views have not been heralded from the pulpits, and are held by many prominent men in the church on the doctrine of perfection in this life.

THE EDITOR OF THE NEW YORK EVANGELIST, in his paper of September 21, says: "In our present condition there is one great mystery black cloud over the altar of atonement and holiness and salvation. The doctrine that God has from all eternity foreordained a portion of the human family to eternal damnation is a doctrine which Calvin himself pronounced a horrible decree."

MERCY FOR LOST SOULS. Now, sir, I think the most of us have a secret hope that God has reserved some way to himself by which he may at some time restore some, at least, of these lost souls.

KIDNAPERS TAKEN TO MARYLAND. Donaldson Not Released on Habeas Corpus at Hollidaysburg.

HOLLIDAYSBURG, Sept. 22.—(Special.)—A second hearing in the kidnapping case of Albert A. Marshall, of Towson, Md., was added to-day when Judge John Dean, of the County Court, heard a writ of habeas corpus for the discharge of Arthur R. Donaldson, of Pittsburg, a general agent of the Life Insurance Company of Hartford, who had been arrested for kidnaping Marshall, on a requisition of Governor Jackson, of Maryland.

Tri-State Briefs. GENERAL GOLF denies the report that he has been tendered and would accept the two Virginia.

JOHN DOAK, a miner, and his two Hungarian laborers, were crushed to death by a mass of falling rock while they were loading cars in the Cuyuna Colliery in the northern region.

MISS MARGARET WINSTON, who lived on the Ohio side near Parkersburg, ended her life with a dose of laudanum Sunday night. Her daughter had previously committed suicide, the mother was nearly insane with grief.

JOHN DOAK is probably the most mysterious man in the northeastern country. He has been arrested for throwing a bucketful of lubricating oil over Mrs. M. H. Steel and her two daughters while they were on their way to school.

The following are among the appointments announced at the closing session of the A. M. E. Conference at Johnstown, Allegheny county, September 21, 1891.
